

SAMK / Application for a research permission (thesis)

After completing the application until the signature phase, send the application as an email attachment to the address tutkimusluvut@samk.fi and inclose your research plan approved by the supervisor. Do not start gathering material for the thesis before you have been granted a research permission. When collecting research material, remember to inform that research permit has been granted for the research.

Thesis writer(s):

Email address(es) of thesis writer(s):

Title of thesis:

Presumable date of research and for gathering material:

Thesis writer's degree programme:

Institute, if other than SAMK:

Is personal information gathered in the research and is a person register formed of them*?    yes    no

*Gathering personal information and registration of information mean collecting individual information (such as name, social security number, date of birth) and research information into a register. (Extra information www.tietosuoja.fi). After the research, the research register will be either destroyed or archived without any identifying information.

Supervisor(s):

After sending the application to the address tutkimusluvut@samk.fi, the application returns for your electronic signature approximately within a week.

Electronic signatures of the student, thesis supervisor, licensor are displayed on the last page of the entire document and its attachments. The contracting parties will receive the signed document by email.