SAMK / Announcement of research

For small-scale researches at SAMK, which are implemented by the personnel to develop the operation or by the students as their exercises before the actual thesis. For partial researches connected to some research entity with previously granted research permit.

Attach to the application a short report of the research and send the announcement and research information scanned as email attachments to tutkimusluvat@samk.fi. When collecting research material, remember to inform that research permit has been granted for the research.

Researcher(s):

Researcher's/researchers' email address(es):

Title of research and title of research entity, if the research is a partial research:

Date of research (material gathering):

Is personal information gathered in the research and is a person register formed of them*? ☐yes ☐no

*Gathering personal information and registration of information mean collecting individual information (such as name, socialsecurity number, date of birth) and research information into a register. (Extra information www.tietosuoja.fi). After the research,the research register will be either destroyed or archived without any identifying information.

The students fill in Research supervisor (e.g. course lecturer, responsible for research)

After sending the application to the address tutkimusluvat@samk.fi, the application returns for your electronic signature approximately within a week.

Electronic signatures of the student, thesis supervisor, licenser are displayed on the last page of the entire document and its attachments. The contracting parties will receive the signed document by email.