

Making a request for a review

Making a request to the controller

The request for an inspection is made in person or by means of a hand-signed document or other reliable means of verification. The request shall be addressed to the Data Protection Officer.